

MIA EDUCATION

“Empowering members to share their expertise with the design community.”

How do I get approved to present MIA classes to architects and designers?

1. Fill out the enrollment form and submit payment to the MIA home office.
2. Attend an Orientation/Train-the-Trainer conference call.
3. Sign and return your MIA/CEU Provider Commitment Form.
4. Fill out and return your Speaker Biography Form.

Questions?

Sarah Kelly, CEU Administrator
 605.262.2012
ceuadministrator@marble-institute.com.

Nine classes now available. More being developed.

- Introduction to Natural Stone Design I
- Introduction to Natural Stone Design II
- Genuine Stone: A Natural Choice for Sustainable Design
- Natural Stone: The Evolving Marketplace, Technology & Product Applications (includes tour)
- Natural Stone Tile: An Overview
- Natural Stone Thin Veneer: The Basics
- Marble Use in the Kitchen
- Basics of Travertine Selection, Fabrication, Installation, & Maintenance
- Partnering with Natural Stone Countertop

Key Benefits

- Gain access to MIA developed PowerPoint presentations
- Becoming a trusted resource for information about natural stone
- Receive discounts on literature for the design community
- Obtain training and ongoing administrative support
- Save thousands of dollars versus developing your own CEU programs

CONNECT WITH

Architects | Interior Designers
 Kitchen & Bath Dealers
 Landscape Architects | and More!

