

OFFICIAL NOMINATION FORM

The Bybee PRIZE

The Bybee Prize was established in honor of James Daniel Bybee, a long-standing member of the Building Stone Institute and former CEO of Bybee Stone Company.

The Bybee Prize is awarded to an individual architect whose life-long body of work is distinguished by outstanding use of natural stone in building or landscape design.

The 2026 Bybee Prize will be presented on February 2, 2027 at StonExpo in Las Vegas during the Natural Stone Institute Awards Ceremony. By acceptance of this award, the recipient is expected to prepare a 5-6 minute retrospective of their work and attend the ceremony to accept the award.

PAST RECIPIENTS

- 2024 Lee Becker, FAIA
- 2022 Tod Williams and Billie Tsien
- 2020 Roger Jackson, FAIA
- 2018 Carol R. Johnson, FASLA
- 2016 Robert A.M. Stern, FAIA
- 2014 Peter Walker, FASLA
- 2012 Robert Frasca, FAIA
- 2010 Laurie Olin, FASLA
- 2008 Henry Cobb, FAIA
- 2006 Lawrence Halprin, FASLA
- 2004 Cesar Pelli, FAIA
- 2002 M. Paul Friedberg, FASLA
- 2001 Malcolm Holzman, FAIA

Nominations are confidential and should not be disclosed to the nominee.

ALL NOMINATION FORMS ARE DUE BY JULY 20, 2026.

I nominate the following person for consideration of The Bybee Prize:

Name of Nominee: _____
Title: _____
Company Name: _____
Address: _____
City: _____ State: _____ ZIP: _____
Work Phone: _____ Email: _____
Website: _____
.....

Nominated By: _____
Company Name: _____ Email: _____

Please prepare a concise PDF submission describing why you are nominating this individual and how their life-long body of work has impacted architecture or landscape architecture through the use of natural stone. Career summary and examples of their work are encouraged.

Scan the code for more details and retrospective videos of past recipients.

Email forms to jane@naturalstoneinstitute.org

380 E. Lorain Street • Oberlin, OH 44074
Phone: 440-250-9222 • Fax: 440-774-9222