

Are You a Woman with Motivation to Learn, a Desire to Contribute, and Potential for Leadership in the Stone Industry?

WOMEN IN STONE EMPOWERMENT SCHOLARSHIP

The Women in Stone Empowerment Scholarship is a unique learning opportunity with several invaluable components designed to move your career in the stone industry to the next level. The recipient will receive an all-expenses paid trip to one of the following stone industry events:

- TISE
- Coverings
- Natural Stone Institute's Study Tour

The experience also includes a customized itinerary complete with shadowing opportunities to ensure you come home with a broad understanding of the industry as a whole, and a long list of new contacts to build your professional network.

Award package includes airfare, hotel, event registration, and meal and transportation allowance. Recipient will be expected to attend certain events during their trip and provide photos for promotional purposes. Limitations and exclusions apply. Items will vary based on event chosen. Details will be confirmed prior to date of travel.

If selected, nominee should provide one headshot and a photo of themselves at work, on the jobsite, participating in committees or events, etc.
